

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington D.C. 20505

DDI-

265982/1

Executive Registry

82-0908/2

The Honorable Henry E. Thomas
 Assistant Secretary of Energy for International Affairs
 Department of Energy
 Washington, D.C. 20585

22 APR 1982

Dear Mr. Thomas:

In response to your request for CIA assistance in staffing the DOE intelligence element, [redacted] Deputy Director for Economic-Resource Analysis, Office of Global Issues has met with Mr. George Bradley of your staff. As a result of that meeting, CIA has agreed to provide you with a senior CIA officer on reimbursable detail to become the Director of your Office of Intelligence. It is my understanding that the period of this detail will be for six months.

25X1

According to Mr. Bradley, the duties of the Director of Intelligence in the Office of International Affairs at DOE will include the supervision of a small intelligence staff that will prepare the Secretary of Energy's Daily Highlights, give briefings to senior DOE officials, articulate intelligence requirements to the Intelligence Community and do the staff work necessary to support the DOE Senior Intelligence Officer.

The officer we would propose for this position is [redacted] current Special Assistant to the Director of Global Issues and former Chief of the International Materials Division of the Office of Economic Research (OER). In that capacity, [redacted] was in charge of the international energy effort in the Agency.

25X1

25X1

25X1

I understand that Mr. Bradley has also been in touch with [redacted] Chief of G Group, NSA with regard to obtaining rotational analysts from NSA to augment the DOE International Affairs intelligence effort. Please let me know the outcome of these discussions.

Sincerely,

/s/ B. R. Inman

B. R. INMAN

Admiral, U.S. Navy

Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

All of the Above is Confidential

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL